Flaming red Maple leaves: The amazing autumn colours make you feel intoxicated

2022 Sydney Departure: 14 May

Well-planned National Park within a World Heritage Site; Sydney's best Maple Viewing site; Classical and luxurious English high tea

Sydney – Blue Mountains Botanic Gardens – mysterious private garden – Hydro Majestic Blue Mountains Hotel– Sydney

Depart from Sydney in the morning, take a luxury coach to the tourist attractions, and start our maple viewing tour. Our first destination – to the Blue Mountains National Park within the World Heritage Site, the Blue Mountains Botanic Gardens with stunning cool climate gardens and Mount Tomah Gardens at 1,000 meters above sea level overlooking the region, The Blue Mountains World Heritage area with its stunning panoramic views. A walk around the 28-hectare estate is a botanical tour. At noon, we will come to the biggest highlight of the day – the top 5 maple viewing spots in Sydney, an English-style town, a mysterious private garden, gorgeous golden autumn, brilliant red leaves, winding paths leading to seclusion, red and yellow colours, It makes people feel as if they have stepped into a dream world, and is definitely the number one in Sydney's maple viewing spot. Here let us leave colourful shadows, love, and the best memories. Then continue to the most worthwhile experience of the day – the classical and luxurious English high tea at the Hydro Majestic Hotel. The elegant Hydro Majestic Blue Mountains Hotel is like an art salon, decorated with elegant style and rich artistic atmosphere. Here we taste a series of delicious tempting high tea. There are also stunning panoramic views of the Megalong Valley. Returning to Sydney in the evening with beautiful memories.
